NO PRIVATE CAR.

Receiver Wilson Says He Is Entirely Opposed to Such a Scheme.

Receiver J. C. Wilson of the Santa Fe, has no private car, and wishes it thoroughly understood that he does not intend to get one. "I do not believe that the income of the railroad should be used for such a purpose," said Mr. Wilson to day.

"The report that I was to have a private car is a mistake. I have not made such a proposition or suggestion, and I do not want the impression to be created that I have it."

An Important Difference.

To make it apparent to thousands who think themselves ill, that they are not affected with any disease, but that the system simply needs invigoration, is to bring comfort home to their hearts, as a certain condition is easily cured by using Syrup of Figs. Manufactured by the California Fig Syrup Co.

There was a large sleighing party out last night, all on one sled, consisting of Moses R. T. McMaster, Arthur Kamm, E. Arnold, Elbridge Tompkins, Mat Taylor, Cliff Rhodes, Leon Tuttle, Misses Anna Payne, Nellie Ruth Kittle, Deiman, May Maxwell, Mary, Kate and Bird Williams.

Officer Capron arrested nine tramps near the Rock Island sand pile this morning. The lot included all ages, sizes and conditions, from a little nigger to a man.

Two of the party were charged with robbing a man named Hale, who had been walking along the road.

The late storm seems to have driven all the tramps into the city, and many homes have been visited and applications made for a "hand out."

Three of them came to Mrs. Hughes' place last night with a piece of meat which Hale had given them and when they saw him he turned and ran.

Mrs. Hughes told them it was all she had.

She then took them to her home and fed them to a merchant whom she had seen walking along the road.

They accepted the proposition and went to work. A few minutes later Mr. Hughes and company went to Hale's to see him again.

He was not at home, but his wife was.

His little boy was going with the tramps and thinking he was sending for the police, ran away, leaving their meat behind.

MORE MEN STEAL SHOES.

A Witness Sees Them Hide the Footwear in the Snow.

James Hart and Thomas Wilson were arrested last night by Officer Campbell, for stealing a pair of shoes from M. Alfieri, who runs a furnishing store at 220 Kansas avenue.

Hart had his hearing this morning as follows:

"You are charged with being drunk and property damage, are you guilty or not guilty?" asked Judge Ensminger.

He was fined $20.

Wilson, who was next tried, pleaded not guilty.

Officer Campbell said he had a witness
